Pest nov. 10/65

Bonn Calls for Share

By Murrey Marder Washington Post Staff Writer

is anxious to share in a nuclear weapons system, and not just in consultations.

by two West German emistration. saries in the last two weeks. They sounded out Washington Meets U.S. Leaders policy-makers on variations of the widely disputed plans for member of the West Forman affairs. creating an Allied nuclear Parliament, an industrialist, force in Western Europe.

The first message, through | sometime special envoy for official channels, was deliv- Chancellor Erhard. West Germany's government ered here last week by Franz has emphasized to the John-Krapf, an under secretary of round of talks here yesterday. state in the German Foreign Among officials he met with Office, and former minister Monday were Secretary of at the German Embassy here.

Bonn's stress on nuclear though his mission was tech- retary Robert S. McNamara hardware was conveyed doub-nically unofficial, received a and presidential adviser Mcly to Washington officialdom higher level of attention by Birrenbach completed a The second emissary, al- State Dean Rusk, Defense Sec-George Bundy, Birrenbach was the luncheon guest yesterday of Under Secretary of State George W. Ball and ranking of-He is Kurt Birrenbach, a ficials on Western European

The two emissaries' talks and a private adviser a leentered on the prickly nu-

in A-Weapons System

ly December.

Both Krapf and Birrenbach that the pending plan for a nuclear select committee inside NATO will be a gain, but that it does not go far enough to ed, would be to extend the the weaponry. It probably meet Bonn's needs.

Alternative Plans

tive routes to provide West nuclear weapons. Germany with a physical share fenses, which has been the ob- Western European nation in- visits.

clear issues thta will underlie jective of the sidetracked plans volved must both turn a key Erhardt's meeting with Presi- for a multilateral nuclear force before a weapon can be fired. dent Johnson, probably in ear- (MLF) and Britain's Atlantic Nuclear Force (ANF).

informed Washington officials one route open, the West Ger- other nations would be intendman representatives said.

for tactical nuclear weapons in launching either the jointly-They outlined two alterna- Western Europe to strategic manned MLF or ANF

in the Alliance's nuclear de-the United States and the either the Krapf or Birrenbach

To extend this system to strategic nuclear weapons that A variation of those plans is could strike the territory of ed to widen the scope of nuclear deterrence, and give Another route, they suggest- West Germany a larger role in present two-key system used would greatly widen, as well,

There was no official com-Under the two-key system, ment on the substance of