

...ity has remained Democratic despite Nixon's efforts to make it bipartisan.
...feelings tend to be exaggerated. The majority of ex-White House aides be-
...es that it would be impossible for a President to remain as ignorant of events as
...the White House indicate. "You don't lie to a President," said one former White
...House aide. "I can't imagine any man working with the President who would keep
...such facts from him - or another."
...I never entered the Oval Office without being awed. I visited one veteran of ...two Administrations. "You can't hear that atmosphere. For much as it's ake."
