Dear Mr. Weisburg:

By chance, I was fortunate to hear you on WEA U last Friday night and I enjoyed the program very much. I knew when they appointed Earl Warren to head the "Commission" that there would be a "Whitewash."

One of your callers the other night had the nerve to say that most members of the "Commission" were conservative. Richard Russell was the only conservative among them - the rest were flaming liberals. You seemed to agree with him. I'd like to know how such a decision was reached.

Please let me know the price of your book and also quantity prices for the paper back edition. Thank you.

Sincerely yours,
H. L. Vaughan

THE PAMPERED

"The television set, the movies and the myriad conveniences and distractions of modern life all lure our young people away from the strenuous physical activity which is the basis of fitness in youth and in later life."—John F. Kennedy in Sports Illustrated.

Junior needs the car tonight
(His date's a mile away).
Sister's staying home from school
(It's going to snow today).

Billy's sprawling by the set,
Shirley's by the phone,
Eddie's on his second Coke,
Jean, her second cone.

Soft and white the daily bread,
Crustless for our youth,
Goosey-smooth the caramel
For the tender tooth.

Sheltered from the elements,
Shielded from the air,
Watch them palely loitering
On sofa, bed, and chair.

Children of a way of life,
American, unique,
Where Comfort is bequeathing them
The freedom to be weak.
