Dear Mr. Weisberg,

My purpose in writing is twofold: first, to thank you for joining me for that telephone interview several days ago; second, to order a copy of your book. I'm enclosing a check for $6.25 to cover the costs.

I'm sure you were as interested as I was in the recent outburst by Ambassador Helms against CBS reporter Daniel Shorr. I doubt the Rockefeller Commission will bear down very hard on Helms and his ilk, but his behavior is certainly curious. And did you catch that Shorr story on the CBS evening news this past week? There was some very interesting stuff from a former KGB official who evidently had known Oswald in Russia and had made his information available to intelligence people after defecting to the U.S. in 1964. Shorr talked to John McCone about the guy, and McCone blithely brushed it away.

I look forward to reading your book, and if there are further developments in your running battle with the government, perhaps we can set up a return engagement. Again, my thanks.

Sincerely,

Robert W. Coxe
