

WNEW-TV Channel 5

205 EAST 67TH STREET, NEW YORK, NEW YORK 10021 LEHIGH 5-1000 METROPOLITAN BROADCASTING TELEVISION

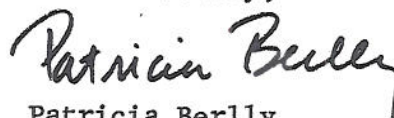

November 2, 1966

Mr. Harold Weisberg
Hyattstown, Maryland

Dear Mr. Weisberg:

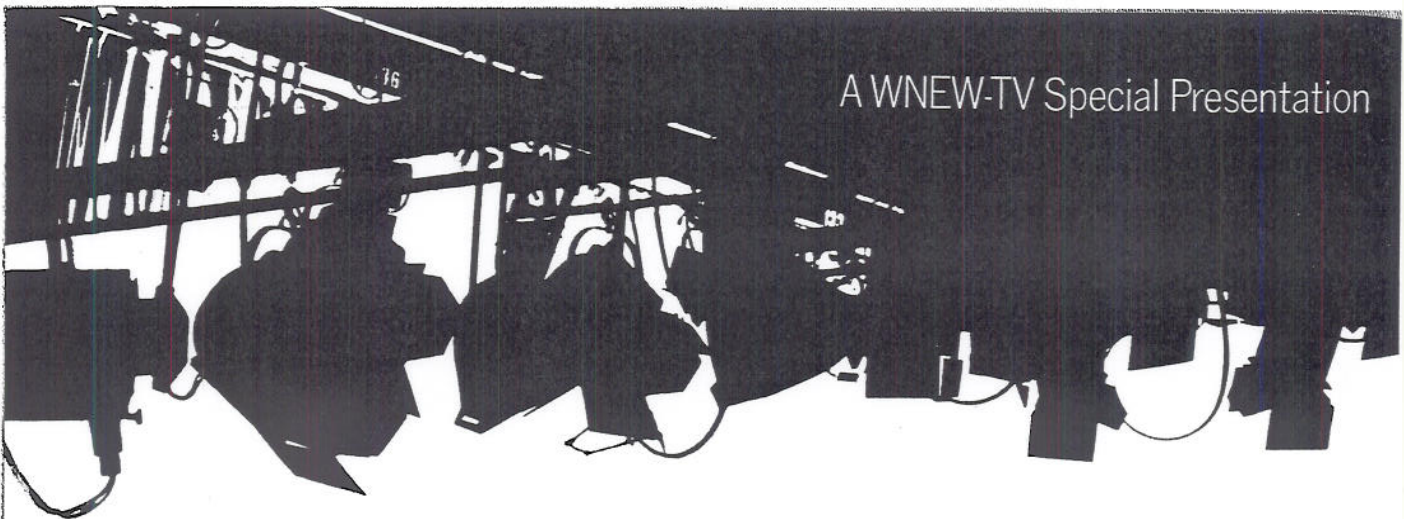

Enclosed please find two releases that were sent out to the press here in New York. We thought you would be interested in seeing them.

Most sincerely,

Patricia Berlly
WNEW-TV

/psb enc.

A WNEW-TV Special Presentation

A RE-EXAMINATION OF THE WARREN COMMISSION FINDINGS: A MINORITY REPORT
=====

Saturday, November 12, 1966
9:00 PM - Midnight

WNEW-TV will present television's first "in depth" News and Public Affairs Special on The Warren Report Findings. Five leading authorities on The Warren Commission Report will meet to discuss and re-examine various aspects of the Commission's findings. Members of the panel are:

Mark Lane - Attorney and author of "Rush to Judgement."

Leo Sauvage - Newspaper correspondent and author of "The Oswald Affair."

Harold Weisberg - Author of "Whitewash, The Report on The Warren Report."

Penn Jones - Newspaper editor and author of "Forgive My Grief".

Jacob Cohen - Educator, Historian and author of "The Missing Document."

Jim Bishop - syndicated columnist and author of "The Day Lincoln Was Shot" and currently working on a new book "The Day Kennedy Was Shot," will act as moderator.

David Schoenbrun - distinguished news analyst, will provide commentary on the discussion.

An increasing number of people now believe that The Warren Commission for all its massive documentation, does not contain the full story. Indicative of this tremendous interest in The Warren Commission Report are the numerous articles being written in various important publications:

Life -- "The Warren Report is Not Enough."
October 7, 1966

Time -- "Autopsy on The Warren Commission."
Times essay - September 16, 1966

U.S. News
& World Report -- "Truth About The Kennedy Assassination."
October 10, 1966

For information about commercial participation in this News and Public Affairs Special contact:

WNEW-TV SALES

Metro TV Sales

WNEW-TV
NEWS

METROPOLITAN BROADCASTING TELEVISION
205 EAST 67TH STREET
NEW YORK, N.Y. 10021
TELEPHONE: LE 5-1000
A DIVISION OF METROMEDIA

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

WARREN COMMISSION FINDINGS TO BE RE-EXAMINED IN THREE HOUR
SPECIAL SCHEDULED FOR NOVEMBER 12 BY WNEW-TV

Channel Five Telecast Will Bring Five Leading Critics Of Warren Report Together For First Time

* * * * *

WNEW-TV will present TV's first full-scale exploration of the Warren Commission Report in a special program to be seen from 9:00 P.M. to midnight, Saturday, November 12.

During the three-hour news special, titled "A Re-examination Of The Warren Commission Findings: A Minority Report," five authors of newsmaking books and articles confront each other for the first time to argue various aspects of the Commission's findings, which were issued in September, 1964.

Participants in the special telecast include:

Mark Lane -- attorney and author of "Rush to Judgement." Mr. Lane is a former New York Assemblyman who testified twice before the Warren Commission and formed the Citizens Committee of Inquiry into the facts surrounding the assassination of President Kennedy.

Leo Sauvage -- American correspondent for "Le Figaro" for nearly 20 years, he is the author of "The Oswald Affair, An Examination of the Contradictions and Omissions of the Warren Report."

Harold Weisberg -- author of "Whitewash, The Report on the Warren Report."

(MORE)

Penn Jones --- editor of the "Midlothian (Texas) Mirror" and author of "Forgive My Grief."

Jacob Cohen -- author of "The Missing Documents," an article appearing in "The Nation" magazine. Mr. Cohen taught for 3 years at Yale, and five years at Brandeis.

* * * * *

Jim Bishop -- syndicated columnist, author of "The Day
Lincoln Was Shot" and currently at work on a new book called "The Day Kennedy Was Shot," will serve as host and discussion leader of the special WNEW-TV program which has already been taped, and is now in the final stages of editing and preparation.

Mel Baily is Executive Producer.

* * * * *

October 4, 1966

For further information: Alan Bell
LE 5-1000