

Client Number: 90

Paper: Daily News

City: Wash.

State: D.C.

This Clipping Processed by
MARYLAND-DELAWARE PRESS SERVICE, INC.
301 E. Lombard Baltimore, Md. 21202 Phone 837-6070

Date Run: 10/15/66

Page Run: 34

TV Outlook

• The Warren Commission Report on the assassination of President John F. Kennedy will be the subject of a three-hour Channel 5 (WITG) special Saturday, Nov. 12, at 9 p. m. The program will spot a group of authors who have questioned the Commission's findings. They are Harold Weisberg, Mark Lane, Leo Sauvage, Jacob Cohen and Pen Jones. Jim Bishop, currently at work on a new book, "The Day Kennedy Was Shot," will host the program. Channel 5 said that members of the Warren Commission declined an invitation to appear.

• Mort Werner, Vice President in Charge of Programs and Talent, NBC-TV, announced today that the network has started production on new color episodes of the famed "Dragnet" series for next season.

In making the announcement, Mr. Werner said: "Never in this country's history has there been more interest in law enforcement and its problems. "Dragnet '67," based on actual cases, and starring Jack Webb and Harry Morgan, will be a vivid portrayal of the police officer in 1967."

From 1952 to 1959, "Dragnet" was one of NBC's most successful programs.

• "Flying Saucers — Fact or Fiction" will be the subject of Channel 5's "Mark Evans Show" Sunday at 9 p. m. Frank Edwards, author of "Flying Saucers — Serious Business"; and Philip Klass, senior editor of Aviation Magazine, will be the guests.