Miss Elman,

Pursuant to your letter of 2/6/74.

Please separate the above and regard it as your bill.

I understood you are in the preliminary stages. It is because decisions can be made without full appreciation of potential that I wrote and phoned. There is much here that is not generally known. And my knowledge of the characters, including King and the hidden changes that had taken place within him, has increased enormously with the investigations I conducted following publication of Frame-Up.

There is, I believe, also a promising lawyer movie in the work of which the book is only part.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg

Dear Mr. Weisberg:

As I wrote you previously, we're still in the preliminary stages of research on our Martin Luther King project. We greatly appreciate your correspondence and will be in touch with you more directly when we get to the point where we have a concrete film to discuss with you. In the meantime, we would like to order three (3) copies of "Frame-Up." Please bill us for the cost, including shipping and insurance, and we will send a check immediately.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

Barbara Elman
