Dear Mrs. Wardell-Hall,

What I think is the best-prepared and best-secured package I have every received came yesterday, in perfect condition, and not even a scratch on the binder of the REK grand-jury record. I appreciate both the transcript and the extraordinary care taken with the packaging. As one who makes many packages, I know it too time and trouble, so on all counts, many, many thanks.

I have had several requests for the Curry book. Now I have one I can lend out to those of serious intentions.

This is all very helpful. I do appreciate your kindness.

The package said there was a message on the inside. I found none. I then took the packaging itself apart piece by piece on the chance it was between the layers. I could find it nowhere. My phlebitis seems to have reached a plateau at which my time is restricted. I had to resist the temptation to start reading immediately. However, I did thumb between the pages to see if there was a loose sheet.

So, all I can do now is to express ~~it~~ appreciation.

Sincerely

Harold Weisberg
