Rockefeller Panel Said to Check Report of C.I.A. Role in Kennedy Assassination

[illegible] Lee Harvey Oswald [illegible] Hunt, who is prep[illegible] term to prison follow[illegible] loss of an appeal seeking [illegible] his conviction, re[illegible] testified in a closed [illegible] with Rockefeller commission investigators on wednesday.

Mr. Gregory met with commission investigators earlier, according to knowledgeable sources, and outlined the assertion that centers on the photographs.

Mr. Hunt reportedly told the commission staff that he was at home in the Washington, D.C., area on the day of the Kennedy assassination, had dined that evening with his family and supplied the names of witnesses who could attest to whereabouts.

The sources said that Mr. Hunt also gave the investigators a statement in which he maintained that he had never visited Dallas until 1971 and had never met Mr. Sturgis until a year after that.

Mr. Hunt also reportedly described a report, which has lately gained some currency among private assassination investigators, that he met Oswald in Mexico City in 1963 while serving as chief of the C.I.A. station there.

The Warren Commission inquiry established that Oswald visited Mexico City on Sept. 27, 1963, less than two months before the Kennedy assassination, when he requested permission to visit Cuba from the Cuban Government's embassy there.
