

In Sunday's Star October 9

Did Oswald Act Alone?

In the last several weeks, three books have been published severely criticizing different aspects of the Warren Commission's Report on the assassination of President Kennedy. Their assertions have caused one of the late President's advisors, Richard Goodwin, to call for the convening of a new fact-finding body to examine the Commission's evidence. THIS WEEK Magazine presents, in their own words, the claims of the three leading critics.

The Sunday Star

Phone Lincoln 3-5000 For Home Delivery