OFFICE OF THE CORONER

January 14, 1972

Mr. Harold Weisberg
Coq d'Or Press
Route #8
Frederick, Maryland 21701

Dear Harold:

I was sorry to learn of your injury, and I hope that your lacerated thumb is healing satisfactorily.

I have not yet heard from Burke Marshall, and I have no idea when I shall, or what his decision will be.

Assuming that I am granted permission, I would welcome the opportunity to talk with you and review the various items that you have referred to in previous correspondence. If I hear affirmatively, I will call you and arrange for a meeting and/or phone conferences before I review the Archive materials.

Please be assured that I bear no hostility toward you, nor do I have any feeling of competitiveness vis-a-vis your efforts in this matter. Our objectives are the same.

With kind regards.

Sincerely,

Cyril H. Wecht, M.D., J.D.
