Dear Sylvia,

I suppose if we were not people of passion we could not have undertaken what we have. In my own case, I am aware that I work with too great an intensity, the tany horves are not in good shape, that I work when I'm too tired and i vay sometimes say things that while true pohraps ought not be said. But I do not consciously say what is not factually correct. If i have monopoly on neither being right nor wrong, my recollections of my correspondence with "yril is as I reflected it to you. I can't protend to be certain of the explanation. I've thought about it and the one ting that seems to refer some in what I told it. It is the one thing that seems be be consistent with what se ms a strange record, one certifally inconsistent with him as - have thought of him as it is what have I have felt about him.

In fairnes to you, I feel I should send you a sample of what 4 discussed. To serve this purpose - have copied his tast letter to me, the one to which it was supposedly in response, and the top part of my response, which is on the reverse side of his.

You wil not that on 8/21 I reminded him I had not yet gottenthe technical data and what I think you can understand is a reminder, gentle, that he had not returned my call.

I have checked my calendar, and prior to the date of his letter for that entire worth I was away but once, on the 18th, when I wentto Washington. I was otherwise away no longer than to take my wife shoping in the morning, generally early, or in the evening if I had to go to the post effice. I am not saying he didn't earl, but he couldn't have toded hard and be didn't sent the stuff or a note.

It is now a worth and two days since I replied. I said what I told you I said.
I didn't use a second shelt of to-me precious paper for the 5 lance of my 9/12 because the beginning says that I said, as you will see.

You will find the rest of the correspondence file as I represented it to you. If I have no comforting interpretation, I am confident of the fact, and I represented it to you am it is. Soither of upe time or need to copy further back, but if you have any reason to sent as to, I will.

This requires no answer. As with my call, it is for your information only.

Sincerely,
