

Memorandum

DATE: 4-1-69

TO: [Signature]
FROM: G. E. Meltsfeld
SUBJECT: HAROLD WEISBERG
COSTUME DRESS
FREDERICK, MARYLAND

This is to recommend no acknowledgment of a letter dated March 24th from captioned individual wherein he is requesting information regarding the James Earl Ray case for his forthcoming book. Weisberg has been critical of Bureau in past.

By letter dated March 24th, captioned individual requested that he be furnished information, including photographs, on the James Earl Ray case for a book regarding Ray he is preparing and asked to be afforded same courtesy we extended Clay Blair, Jr., regarding his book, "The Strange Case of James Earl Ray." On March 12, 1969, Weisberg wrote Attorney General Mitchell and made allegations against Bureau Agents that they were slandering him because of his alleged influence on New Orleans District Attorney Jim Garrison. He requested an explanation from Mr. Mitchell regarding this. By letter dated 3/29/69, the Department acknowledged Weisberg's letter and denied allegations. Letter pointed out that from Weisberg's previous correspondence regarding the Warren Commission that it is plain any further exchange of correspondence between him and the Department of Justice will serve no useful purpose. Bufiles disclose Weisberg is author of several books, the first of which was entitled "Whitewash - The Report of the Warren Report" and has in past been critical of the Warren Commission, the FBI, Secret Service, police agencies and other branches of Government. He was one of ten employees fired by State Department during 1947 because of suspicion of being a communist or having communist sympathies. In 1951 he and his wife were subject of a Federal Tort Claims Act investigation for damages allegedly sustained in poultry business as a result of low "Ying" heanders. We did not cooperate with Clay Blair, Jr., in connection with preparation of his book but we did look over his rough manuscript and several major discrepancies regarding us were pointed out to him.

(REC-107)

In view of Weisberg's background and his baseless allegations toward Bureau Agents, it is not felt his letter of March 24th or any subsequent correspondence should be acknowledged as it will only encourage further letters from him.

RECOMMENDATION: That this letter of March 24th not be acknowledged for reasons therefore set forth.

Mr. J. Edgar Hoover, Director
Federal Bureau of Investigation
Washington, D.C.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

In my just published book, "The Strange Case of James Earl Ray", Clay Blair, III, expresses his gratitude for the information and assistance given me by your Bureau.

I have written the book including the Ray case, and I would like to be able to include any information that might be missing.

Therefore, I write to ask for what has been given to Blair in past other matters and any other data you might soverly give me.

I do not think there has been a court or hearing, and here, one of my readers have been contacted, secret is to lower. I am, therefore, I want to to last evidence that establishes or tends to establish that Ray was the author, and I am sure he has the conviction proof. So, like that, I am sure entirely justifiable. I would like to receive a list of the names of all of the officers, and with the existing information of the involvement of each one person. If possible, I would like to know the names of all the persons with the Ray case. I would particularly like to know the names of your Bureau that have been contacted. Ray's readers would be very glad to see all about it, and I would like their interest.

Your Bureau has also released some pictures, and I would like to see locally your copy of them, you may not properly give me, but I would like to see them at the same time. I would like to see the pictures of the pictures of the officers, and I would like to see the pictures of the pictures of the officers, and I would like to see the pictures of the

My purpose in seeking this information is to be able to write and accurate and complete history that was written by the author of the and not alone and probably was not the assassin. I am sure that you will the available records that there was no conspiracy that would be revealed.

Thank you for any help you may provide.
