The ~~cannot~~ ^{it} all be ~~included~~ ^{contained} in the appendix, ^{to} for they are too numerous. Breaking the book into two so the text might be longer, ~~points omitted,~~ ^{to numerous} index included, ~~tohrs slighted~~ ^{and that are} considered in more detail, is not feasible, for that, too, would tax out physical and financial capacities. rest per fols.

This is the uncorrected, retyped first draft. The size of the job I have undertaken requires that the first draft be the last one. Otherwise, I cannot continue the investigation, research, analysis and writing. As you read it you will undoubtedly find errors. I would appreciate it if you could make marginal notes in red so that I can find them rapidly. There will undoubtedly be additions and other changes in the Postscript, which was retyped before it was completed. However, this is a copy of what was typed for the camera and changes in the earlier chapters will have to be minimal. I would also appreciate any suggestions. I plan an appendix as in PHOTOGRAPHIC WHITEWASH, only larger and with more notes. If possible, it will include my extensive Archives correspondence.
