occurred to the Commission. One gets the impresvolumes where the conception of a second Oswald tant.1 I noticed only one place in the twenty-six sion that the hard-pressed staff found it convenient many witnesses were apparently reliable and disother aberrations, notwithstanding the fact that to ascribe all the incidents to tricks of memory and by others. Furthermore, they must have had coninterested people whose testimony was confirmed siderable conviction to persist with their stories in a role on November 22, 1963. there was a second Oswald, that his presence was lawyers. The evidence seems to me compelling that the face of questioning by the rm and Commission being forced on people's notice, and that he played

For example, an independent researcher, Mr. Jones Harris, has given me the following report:

"In March 1966, I interviewed in Dallas a Mr. January who had been manager of Red Bird Air Field at the time their car and spoke to him, leaving a young man sitting in the front of the car. The couple inquired as to the possibility of hiring a Cessna 310 on Friday the 22nd to take them to the Yucatan peninsula. They asked how far the Cessna could the Yucatan peninsula. of the assassination. Mr. January told me that on Wednesday, November 20, 1963, three people turned up at the airport. Two of them, a heavy-set young man and a girl, got out of Would they have to stop in Mexico City? January replied that it would be necessary and this seemed to suit their plans that it would be necessary that they wanted to be back at Red "They told January that they wanted to believe that they bird Field on Sunday, January did not believe that they could afford the flight. Privately, he suspected that they without refueling. How fast did the plane travel?

edded not to rent them the plane even if they turned up want to hijack his plane and go on to Cuba. He with the money before the flight. before. Then he remembered the young man sitting in the front seat of the car and was convinced that it had been he saw Oswald on TV he was certain he had seen him "He never saw the three people again. But on Friday when > the groupings of double Oswald occurrences can through the city. Fred Gramham correctly states in would be a Presidential motorcade." But the Regot his job at the School Book Depository on Octothe New York Times of August 28th that "Oswald Kennedy's plans to come to Dallas and of his route be correlated rather closely with news reports of port tells us that the Dallas Times-Herald of Sepber 15th, a month before anybody knew there would take place on either November 21 or Nody's plan to visit the city and indicated the event tember 13th stated that Kennedy was to visit vember 22 (Report, p. 40). Thereafter there was Dallas; that both Dallas papers on September 26th in the papers, especially after the violent incidents much comment about Kennedy's impending visit (the date of the Odio episode) confirmed Kenne-It is interesting, and may well be significant, that nedy within one block of the Book Depository; after anyone could have figured out would bring Kentraditional parade route is down Main Street, which the newspaper. The Report also points out that the known) the plans for the visit were confirmed in bershop, and when real Oswald's location is not Oswald was seen in the grocery store and the bar-October 24th. On November 8th (when second that occurred during Adlai Stevenson's visit on Main Street, the procession was to go on to the las Times-Herald on November 16th, and a detailed Houston and Elm, appeared in both papers on the plan of the route, including the fateful turn onto Trade Mart. This route was mentioned in the Dal-19th. Thus, the second Oswald might have been