Texan Claims His Dad Shot JFK for CIA

Associated Press

Dallas

Adding yet another theory to the bulging file on the assassination of John F. Kennedy, an unemployed Texas salesman yesterday claimed that his father was one of three people who killed the president.

Ricky Don White contends his father joined the Dallas Police Department in September 1963 to carry out the assassination. He said his father, Roscoe White, was one of three CIA operatives who fired the shots.

The CIA issued an unusually strong rebuttal to White's claims.

"These allegations — that this was done on CIA orders, that this guy worked for us and that CIA had any role in the assassination of President Kennedy — are ludicrous," CIA spokesman Mark Mansfield said in Washington.

Roscoe White never worked for the CIA, Mansfield said. "Normally, we never confirm nor deny employment, but these allegations are so outrageous that we felt it necessary and appropriate to respond," he said.

The FBI said in a brief statement that it had received the same information in 1988 but "determined that this information is not credible."
