Dear Ed,

This letter of thanks for yours of the 17 and the pages of Dark Star, before I get all tied up again. My phone has been busy all night and I was in Washington today, where I got a summary judgement against Justice on what they have been holding back from the Ray file. In the a.m. I'll have to get back on the new final chapter and the editing.

It just doesn't make sense, Justice not even appearing today, and not complying with the judge's order of last week. But I suppose I'll ultimately find out what makes them crazy.

I hope to find time to read the chapter tonight, before I go to bed. I was not aware that Eatherly had this involvement or, if I had known it, as perhaps I did at the time he was in the news, I'd forgotten it.

I suggest that there is another possibility, that others in Shaw's building may have been interested. There were agency people there. Doubl-Chek also had a N.O. office. But I can't figure that interest in 1947. Maybe it will make more sense after I've read the chapter. Many thanks for it.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg

Dear Howard,
I want to make separate cover of Proportions from David Stor, a Biographical of David Eastman
of Remus Duggan.
If you wish
I'll make attempt to reveal info in 1947.

The passage
between the episode
and later events
is striking.

Of course, it has been alleged that Craig Shaw was a participant.
But a close examination of the no evidence of it.

Sincerely,
S
