

5/23 Dear Ed, Glad you could get here again. Enjoyed your visit. I can't read fast, can't believe you actually do read! But the pocketbooks will be good to carry. What time I spend on reading at home I must now devote to Frank, With Care.

Your letter is very kind, if a bit excessive. Neither now nor in the past have I had this concept of myself. I think you have this feeling more from the abdication of others than from what I have done and do. The tragedy is there is virtually no competition, no work and less thinking being done.

There is a UPI story this morning confirming what Jerry said about police use of false press credentials Sunday. It happened in Maine, after a threat against Muskie, with the Secret Service doing it.

The enclosed Buchwald is in case you missed it. He is sui generis generis, with some competition, but none quite up to him. Ever see Hoppe in the SF Chronicle?

How I wish I could accept your invitation to visit! We could use a vacation, but Lil is uncomfortable travelling and we can't even pay for the gas. And, with well over 99,000 miles on my car, I nurse it. Haven't the money to repair or replace.

Best regards and again thanks,

114 HUTCHISON
AVE.

ELLIOT LAKE
ONTARIO
CANADA

Dear Harold,

The passing of J.E.H.
simply removes a very
vulnerable target of criticism.

Harold Jagger was with The Fonda "Show" "Pumors"
have J.G. dying.

The Wallace shooting
will strengthen "The Higher Chances" by the
tragic public acceptance
of the law and Order
vixen song.

On the media level
the clique of a hate
filled, lone assassin
might us being them-
tically attempted to
cover all the assassinations.

On fact according
to the new revisionism
(The Kennedy Doctrine by Fitz Simmons or Walton etc.)
J.F.K. was a virtual warmonger. How bitting that The New York Times should

publish Ezra Warren's
A Republic - Of You
Can Keep It. A such job, that.

Most Sable once
"acutely remarked that
R.F.K. will be relegated
to a casualty of World War II."

Your references
to Orwell were chillingly
prophetic. Raw propaganda is the name
of the game. Its blunders
are well rewarded.
Frank will get half
a million as an advance for a Judy
Garland biography.

As the enclosure
suggests, Burke Marshall
played an interesting
role in the Malcolm
X affair.

At this stage, however,
it would appear
that only some very
sensational development
could bring out the truth.

This does not appear likely, alas! Do you agree?

Thus, as P.M. is too technical on a commercial basis, Tiger is perhaps the best property.

Of course, your article represents an achievement of really believe proportions. You're an American witness, an historian who tells truth to power and the fact that you had to be your own publisher casts a harsh light of commentary upon America's free press. Compared to Zola (a not unfair analogy) you suffer from the fact that he battled a midget while the force of your opposition resembles a Hydra and represents a force of proportions unknown in other days.

I cannot accept The Mafia, as Mafia concept of Hayes or which albeit Mafia figures could be subcontracted by The CIA.

Hypnosis, with increasingly sophisticated techniques and drugs, could produce a "lone assassin", also.

Obviously, practice makes perfect. I understand as of this date Cyril has not even received the grace of a reply from Marshall.

Please use my Canadian address. And get plenty of rest.

You're a valuable national resource as well as a good friend.

Sincerely,

P.S.

Amusing as you Frank
that Garza studied The M.L.K. assassination at
The Institute For Defense
Analysis!

The Shapiro article
has fascinating - if unpleasant - parallels.

The Neely novel,
you from a literary
view, possesses an
intriguing, if unoriginal
concept.

Lansky - See also:
Smother's and McHenry
particularly 191.

Contradictions appearing in Wallace's reporting.
Who benefits? The Economic Cartel/Corporate
interests.