He said BARCZ left Dallas around December 1, 1963 for New York and to return to Poland.

JOSEPH A. GLOWACKI, 3442 Knox, Dallas, on December 9, 1963 advised that he was in the downtown area of Dallas on November 22, 1963 with KRYSTIAN BARCZ, a Polish National who was visiting in the United States on a State Department study grant. That afternoon they stopped at the Ritz Delicatessen for lunch and while there, he observed JACK RUBY in the delicatessen. He introduced RUBY to BARCZ and invited RUBY to sit at their table. RUBY declined with the comment that he was just walking around. He was still at the delicatessen when they left. GLOWACKI said President KENNEDY's assassination had already occurred that day in Dallas, and RUBY asked GLOWACKI what he thought that would do to business, talking about the loss of persons coming to conventions in Dallas. GLOWACKI said he has known RUBY since about 1957 and considers him a casual acquaintance, not a friend, but had seen him often at the B & B Cafe which is near one of RUBY's night clubs.
