

n's Big Tellin'

of Fox' local "Good Day New York" for a couple of years, and since he left, many entities have fought to nab him.

"Entertainment Tonight" offered him its weekend slot, but Tony has now signed with Disney, Buena Vista and "Good Morning America." He will be seen contributing to the ABC morning show while others dream up something for Tony to do on his own.

* * *

GERALD POSNER is the man who wrote "Case Closed." He posited a single-assassin theory in the murder of President John F. Kennedy. Filmmaker Oliver Stone went for the convoluted conspiracy theory in his controversial "JFK" movie.

Posner and Stone will soon be competing again. We hear Stone is negotiating with the family of Martin Luther King Jr. for film rights to King's life story.

Meanwhile, Posner is pursuing, for Random House, the story of James Earl Ray, who was convicted of killing King. Ray made news again recently when the King family announced they do not think he is the true killer.

* * *

Ellen DeGeneres
Almost a "who cares?"

AFTER WE printed our speculation that Barbra Streisand and James Brodin are on the verge of marriage — a hot rumor from coast to coast — we received a call from somebody swearing that the couple is already wed, that they tied the knot on Catalina Island last Saturday. "Not true, as far as I know" reports Streisand's press rep, Dick Guttman, who says he checked with the still-single Babs herself.

Newsday
4/10/97