Dear Harold:

I received your most interesting letter of February 1, and was pleased to get the names you mentioned. I am in the process of finding what I can about these. Regretfully, none of them rang a bell with me, and none were identical with any of the names I already have indexed in my files.

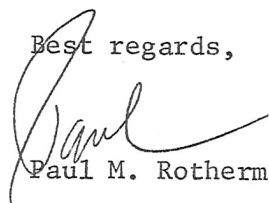

Your comments on Ramsey Clark are well taken.

I had a visit from Bill Wood, and he informs me that the distribution rights for FAREWELL AMERICA are with Bookmaster in New York City and Penn Jones of Midlothian. Penn Jones is scared to distribute the book because it is libelous.

In regard to the ex-FBI agents, there is no George Mueller in the Association of Ex-FBI Agents. There is a George W. Ryan, residence 255 Sycamore Terrace, Stamford, Connecticut, who is employed by Standard Oil Company of New York in the New York headquarters. Tom Eversome is with Casualty Insurance and Real Estate Sales in Fishers, Indiana. I know of him, and would be surprised if he were other than a real estate man. Bart Hahn resides at 750 Valley Drive, Martinsville, Indiana. He was with the FBI from 1948 to 1955, and is a tax consultant in Martinsville. Howard King is a judge in Jasper, Indiana. He retired from the FBI in 1956. Jim Colvin is an attorney in Indianapolis, Indiana, with the firm of Willemson, Colvin, Liggitt and Station. James Myer is not, to my knowledge, an ex-FBI agent, nor is John Calvert or Burt Servass.

Keep in touch, and I will advise you further about your letter.

Best regards,

Paul M. Rothermel, Jr.
