

Dear Harold,

Your letters and suggestions are most welcome. Send me whatever clippings you can - I will be glad to send everything I have of your friend on the Post. Naturally the FBI is not going to allow any of its information to go out. The matter of whether a civil action in a case top case can be forced out of them may have to be decided by the Supreme Court. I may need a friend of the Court (attorney) interested enough to file an amicus curiae brief for a final ruling. Mitchell himself is holding up the criminal prosecution and of course I am fighting big money and politicians so it is a tough battle with little assets. Sometimes though the little people win and any help you can give would be appreciated.

Yes I need a writer - publisher for my material. I think your suggestions in this regard are good. I am not opposed to using a liberal publisher as he may be the only one who really understands.

Best regards

Paul
