MR. JACK H. BROWN, 9312 Wildhaven, Dallas, Texas, advised that his in-laws, MR. and MRS. T. A. YATES, Grapevine, Texas, telephone number BUTLER 9-3192, were neighbors of JACK RUBY. He stated that about two years ago JACK RUBY built a log cabin on the water front across the street from MR. and MRS. YATES. After the construction was completed, RUBY spent a lot of time at the lake, however, as time went on, he only visited occasionally and mostly on week ends. RUBY for the most part entertained men at this cabin.

MR. BROWN could furnish no additional information.

T. A. YATES, Route 1, Box 140, Grapevine Lake, Grapevine, Texas, was interviewed concerning information by JACK H. BROWN relative to a cabin owned by JACK RUBY at Grapevine Lake and also concerning information furnished by FRENCHISS I. VAUGHN concerning the drilling of a water well on property of Log Cabin Enterprises. He related the following:

About four or five years ago, JACK RUBY, in association with TED NEWBERRY and MORTON GIMPLE, built two log cabins near YATES's house at Grapevine Lake. The cabins were built for resale, but apparently they were too high-priced and they were the only ones built. During the building of the first cabin JACK RUBY would occasionally come out to Grapevine Lake to help with the construction. An airline pilot later drilled a well on the RUBY property, but he could not remember who this individual was. TED NEWBERRY, to his recollection, was the one who had the idea of building the cabins and got JACK RUBY and MORTON GIMPLE to finance the project.

JACK RUBY never lived in the cabin, which was just across the road from YATES's residence. However, during the sales promotion, there was one party given and YATES was invited. He could not recall who the other guests were. The enterprise was not profitable and went out of business and RUBY's attorney, STANLEY KAUFMAN, bought the property or acquired it in some manner unknown to YATES. KAUFMAN still uses the cabin as a week-end or summer retreat.

Mr. YATES stated that LEE HARVEY OSWALD was unknown to him and he had never seen him at RUBY's cabin. He has no idea why RUBY shot OSWALD and knew of no connections RUBY might have had with the Dallas Police Department. He said he last saw him about a year ago when RUBY came to Grapevine and asked him if he would board a couple of RUBY's dogs, which he declined to do.
