Dear Mr. Weissberg:

I've been collecting material on political assassinations and conspiracies for about a year now, but I haven't been able to find any of your books.

I found your address in Mae Brussel's bibliography of conspiracy books, and I'm taking the liberty of writing to you. Do you have any of your books for sale from Maryland, and what are the price(s) ~~would~~ ^{to} be, including postage? If you don't have them, do you know where I'd be able to find copies of each?

By the way, one thing which I do have is the complete set of assassination / conspiracy articles which have been published in "Computers and People" magazine from May 1970 to May 1975. If you don't have this material (about 300 pages) please let me know and I'll send you an index of the articles. If you're interested in obtaining good photo-copies of some of the articles, I could Xerox them and perhaps we could arrange a trade for your book(s).

In any case, I thank you much for your time and wish you the strength to continue your pursuit of the elusive truth about that dark day in Dallas.

I am, I hope,
Your friend
Richard Akell
