Mr. Weisberg,

Best wishes to you and Mrs. Weisberg.

Mr. Weisberg, I'll bet your phone is tapped, and mine, too. As I just mentioned in a few lines to Mr. Garrison, dissenting is pretty sticky these days, especially in your case, where you are disputing the Truth Ministry, as Mr. Garrison calls it.

Note the Herblock postage stamp. I just have a few left. I bought two sheets when they came out, thinking I could always get more, but haven't been able to. It's the most significant one ever put out, in my mind.

PTA
12/28/67 When Seymour Hersh was writing his book, Kay Mackley and I made arrangements to talk with him on one of his trips to Fort Detrick. We did, and also gave him a good bit of printed material, which he took along with him, and hopefully, found it useful. His book should be off the presses any day now. I had nothing to do with his speaking at the Fellowship. He was asked by skeptics, but I was glad. The Fellowship just completed a series of Sunday services and members were asked to comment. Hersk's program was in the series. Enclosed is a comment by Rex Moyer, an employee at Detrick. His name is not on it. At least he turned it in. Hersk said he feels it was written by someone other than Moyer. It does sound like PDB propaganda, all right. After reading his, I just had to comment, too.

Would you send them back to me? I only have one copy. Thank you.

Peace,
Helen G. Alexander
