Dear Mr. Weisberg:

The Editorial (Press) in México , is:

Editorial Continental , S. A.
Calzada de Tlalpan # 22220
México 22, México D. F.
The Manager, is : (Send the letter to:Translations Department)

This is the company that has the distribution rights, for such houses as: Van Valkenburgh, Neville , and MacGraw- Hill; among others from Europe. The editorial fund, carries best sellers as well.

Write to the Manager and If he is not interested, I will furnish you with other good leads.

As I told you before, we could do the job in New York, on Saturdays. I only need a good ; fast typist(for Spanish) and I can be able to translate at first sight.

Now, the most important thing is the sentence structure , in order to keep the content and meaning of the idea;for translating in the literal sense, means nothing in a case like this.

I am not a very good typist, as most old fashioned newsmen are;however, should you consider that we could "set-up" a small place in New York ;or at any of your friend's place, then I can do the job;; for which I can accept a moderate fee.The typist , will be more expensive than I.

"Editorial Continental, " distributes books in all the Americas and in case you make any agreement with them, the success is sure.

Let us keep in touch , for further plans.My interest is more than special;since I am one of the first "spanish " speaking men, to be trained (If not the first) under the Manpower T. ACT; a Kennedy Plan , now obscure among the "fighting " wars, somewhere ; while we make peace with the powerful. As a Latin American , I expected more to come from Kennedy. In fact , my mother was a Diplomat in Latin American countries(The first woman in the Americas, to be an Ambassador) ;or Ambasadress. Inside stories, bring to my mind, the humanistic qualities of the Kennedy -Man ; a real example of a modern biological man , with his concept of " Balance of Power".

I am afraid , Mr. Weisberg, I talk (and write) too much when I remember JFK. Please forgive my mind. Write soon.

Yours truly, J. Azpuru-Bernard.
