Dear Danny Alkin,

The list of our books is enclosed. I regret to say that there are very few books I can recommend and they are hard to get. I have nothing to do with pretended solutions to the crime and the assorted theories that are supposed to support them because they deceive and mislead the people. Sylvia Meagher's superb Accessories after the Fact, Vintage reprint, is being offered as a remainder by Edward R. Hamilton, Bookseller, Falls Village, CT 06031-5000. Howard Roffman's Presumed Guilty is the best simplification of the presumption of Oswald's guilt but I've not heard of a copy for sale in years. The others add nothing to what is known where they are factual and have misleading information in them.

I'm 81 and in impaired health and I want to spend all the time that remains for me doing what work I can so I do not want to take time in correspondence, particularly to tell people what I have in books. I hope you can understand this.

I've not paid much attention to the videos because with few exceptions they were made for money, not to inform, and while there is some good in some of them, they also mislead. One that is by far the best is Gerard Selby's ~~Case~~ Reasonable Doubt. The stores that do not have it can get it.

I do not conjecture on the number of shots. That can lead to nothing. I have presented what evidence there is on this in Post Mortem.

The Dallas Cinema Associates sold the rights to David Wolper of their schmalzy President Kennedy's Last Hour. I do not know where it is available. What did <sup>have</sup> some value is what was not schmalz, the outtakes, but I do not have them and do not know where you can get them.

Best wishes,

Harold Weisberg

Dear Mr. Weisberg

I am just finishing your book Selections from Whitewash. I have really enjoyed the book and have found it very informative. I have long been an admirer of the work you have done in uncovering documents dealing with the assassination. I think probably you more than any other person have advanced the study into the assassination cover up by your work.

I have personally been studying the assassination for the past 6 to 8 years. I have read many books and studied all documentary film I can get my hands on. For the last 2 or 3 years I have been trying to get a copy of your Whitewash book but had not been able to until a recent trip to Dallas. I am very interested at this time in obtaining at least two more of your books: Photographic Whitewash and Post Mortem. I would prefer the books in paperback and if possible, you could send them to me with an invoice and I will send a money order. If that isn't possible send me the price of each and I'll send the money.

I would like your suggestions of other books or materials that are worthwhile readings, also any suggested video or films that would help in my research. I have been very interested in Roger Craig's story of events as they unfolded immediately after the assassination. For that reason I have been interested in film footage that was taken immediately after the assassination. I was wondering if the film "President Kennedy's Last Hour" that you mention in your book is available anywhere?

I have my theory on the assassination the whys I'm not for sure about, but I feel Oswald was a patsy and most probably did not shoot at the President. I feel as do most that the head and throat shots came from behind the picket fence. I think probably at least 4 shots came from behind most from the book depository but probably none shot by Oswald. One hitting Gov. Connally, one hitting the President in the back, one striking the sidewalk on the North side of the car, and one very errant shot striking the curb near Mr. Teague. I could go on and on but I know your time is important. I feel it to be a great honor to be able to communicate with you and I will be anxiously awaiting your reply.

Thanks for the help!
