

Phone call from Lauren Schuler, 20th-Century Fox, a little before 6:30 p.m. 9/15/75

She is with the special she was surprised to know I knew is for ABC. Rudy Tellez had told them about me and recommended me highly. The writer who will be in touch is Andrew Salt.

Ms. Schuler wanted to know if I'd be willing to be on the show and I said yes. I asked her if they'd like to cream the other shows and she got excited. I said I have the material, that it is mine, will be out in a book and I'd like to sell ancillary rights. Told of one for print only.

She wanted to know if they could fly me to New York and I said yes but I thought they'd do better to come and see what I have.

I also said that in the course of this work I've come into and across properties I think will make movies.

On King tried to interest in angle of major ~~is~~ legal efforts falling to young lawyer who has not been before a jury but has been to the Supreme Court successfully, and with an unfinanced, improvised investigator/investigation.

She says the show is scheduled for 11/17. I said I could also save them much time. I asked if it would be willing to be brave. She said the staff agrees with me but the show will be both sides. I said if both get fair shake that's fine because there now is really only one side. Suggested Belin and Specter for other side and that I had documents on both of them. Brief explanation of their roles.

She obviously is not the one who runs the outfit but she sure did seem excited.
