Dear Tommy Bowden,

The new News looks good. Good luck with it.

I do not see the name of that first-rate human being Bob Cutler on your masthead. I hope that does not mean that the years are unkind to him! I'll return to this.

I enclose our price list. Two of those books are available only in xerox editions of them. We have not had a single complaint. They have good and expensive bindings that have held up and ^{they} are quite legible, but the reproduction of pictures in the first Whitewash is not as clear as it should be. However, we have no real choice, as I'll explain.

Hopefully in two months I'll be 85. Two years ago my doctors gave me up - for the third time. They rushed me to Johns Hopkins, in Baltimore, where I was more than three times as long as I'd been for a heart operation there in 1989.

I'm much more feeble, and before this latest bout, for which Hopkins' reports says I was treated for eight things, it was no longer safe for me to use the stairs. And, since 1989, for me to lift more than 15 pounds has been prohibited. So, we have no access to the basement, no place to store books other than there, so we are reduced to these xerox editions that we actually keep in the livingroom. Where Bob has been.

I still have a clear recollection of my first meeting Bob. It was in 1967 and I was in Boston to appear on radio and TV, I think WNAC, then an RKO station. Bob came down, blizzard and all, with a commercial artist, and we spent some time in the restaurant to the left of the studio main entrance as one left.

Please give Bob my best wishes and my hope that he is in good shape.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg
