

Dear Mr. Weisberg,

August 14, 1975

In reference to the clipping on Mrs. Oswald
I find it strange and inconceivable that she would not release any information that would vindicate her son.

I hope you receive the clippings I sent yesterday on Security Associates. I hope to hear from Don Sutton of K.I.T. soon about them.

Sincerely,
W. J. All

Dear Paul,

If I haven't told you, it is impossible for me to acknowledge every clipping no matter how valuable they may be and as yours with your note of the 14th are. You send what I've not seen. The Foreman one is particularly valuable. Anything about him can be in the Ray case.

I just can't get any work done unless I in avoid all I can avoid.

If I did not acknowledge the Security Associates clips, thanks for them.

Marguerite Oswald is a tragedy. She has flipped and for years has had an exalted opinion of herself. As an example, what she is trying to sell, evidence that Lee did not renounce his citizenship, is in the Report and the Archives. If she has an evidence of any kind, I'm not aware of it and she has not ever indicated it to me.

Thanks and best regards,
