

12
1
3/30/76

The American Academy
3937 Chestnut St.,
Phila., Pa. 19104

Dear Sirs,

Illness delayed my response to your invitation to membership. My application and check are enclosed.

Because of this delay I'd prefer to delay book selection until you have your new list.

I am interested in the group insurance. That form also is enclosed.

One of my questions will be about waivers.

The illness, diagnosed last October, is phelbitis. I am ~~sux~~ now in what is called a post-phlebitic condition.

I would appreciate being informed as fully as possible about the waivers on this.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg

THE ANNALS

OF THE AMERICAN ACADEMY OF
POLITICAL AND SOCIAL SCIENCE

Perspectives on Publishing

September 1975

BOOK DEPARTMENT: NEW LITERATURE IN THE FIELD OF THE SOCIAL SCIENCES

Copies may be purchased by writing to The American Academy at 3937 Chestnut St., Philadelphia, Pa. 19104. Nonmembers $4.00; Members $3.50. Orders for 5 copies or less must be prepaid (add 75¢ for postage and handling). Orders for 6 copies or more must be invoiced.

PERSPECTIVES ON PUBLISHING

Edited by PHILIP G. ALTBACH, Professor, Faculty of Educational Studies, State University of New York, Buffalo, and SHEILA McVEY, Ph.D. in Educational Policy Studies, University of Wisconsin, Madison.

Preface by PHILIP G. ALTBACH and SHEILA McVEY, Special Editors.

Publishing and the Intellectual System by PHILIP G. ALTBACH, Special Editor.

Publishers as Gatekeepers of Ideas by LEWIS COSER, Professor, Department of Sociology, State University of New York at Stony Brook, Long Island, N. Y.

Role of the Publisher in the Dissemination of Knowledge by GORDON NEAVILL, Lecturer and Ph.D. Candidate, University of Chicago, Graduate Library School, Illinois.

Shapers of Culture: The Editor in Book Publishing by MICHAEL LANE, Staff Member, Department of Sociology, University of Essex, England.

Demythologizing Scholarly Publishing by ANN ORLOV, former Editor for the Behavioral Sciences, Harvard University Press, Cambridge, Mass. and President, Langdon Associates, Inc., consulting and publishing agency.

College Textbook Publishing in the 1970s by PHILLIP WHITTEN, free lance publisher, author, editor and film producer, Marblehead, Mass.

Nineteenth Century America: Publishing in a Developing Country by SHEILA McVEY, Special Editor.

Pity Poor Pascal: Some Sobering Reflections on the American Book Scene by JOHN DESSAUER, President, John P. Dessauer, Inc., Darien, Conn.

Independent Publishing: Today and Yesterday by BILL HENDERSON, Senior Editor at Coward, McCann and Geoghegan Publishing Company, New York, N. Y.

Scholarly Publishing in Western Europe and Great Britain: A Survey and Analysis by BEN RUSSAK, President, Crane, Russak, and Company, New York, N. Y.

Publishing in the USSR and Yugoslavia by EDWARD BOOHER, President, Books and Education Services, McGraw-Hill, Inc., New York, N. Y.

The Bright Promise of Publishing in Developing Countries by DATUS SMITH, JR., former Editor and Director of Princeton University Press, Princeton, N. J.

Who Controls Book Publishing in Anglophone Middle Africa? by KEITH SMITH, Researcher, Institute of Development Studies, University of Sussex, Brighton, England.

1913
2503

The Officers and Directors

of

The American Academy of Political and Social Science

cordially invite you

to membership in the Academy

Annual Meeting

Privileges of Membership in the Academy

Six Volumes of articles per year, written by outstanding authorities in the pertinent fields, with each volume devoted to a single subject, (a feature which makes our journal, THE ANNALS, unique). New members are entitled to one complimentary volume with their subscription. Some titles of the bimonthly volumes follow:

The Negro Protest	Transportation Renaissance	Nonalignment in Foreign Affairs
Africa in Motion	American Foreign Policy	A New American Posture Toward
Collective Violence	Challenged	Asia
How Wars End	The Multinational Corporation	Students Protest
The Peace Corps	Conservatism, Liberalism, and	Sex and the Contemporary
The Nation's Health	National Issues	American Scene
Americans Abroad	Radical Change in American	The Ombudsman or Citizen's
Combating Crime	Religion	Defender: A Modern
Unconventional Warfare	Perspectives on Government and	Institution
Latin America Tomorrow	Science	The Changing American People:
	China in the World Today	Are We Deteriorating or
		Improving?

More than 400 book reviews annually, written by prominent scholars and classified under American Government, Foreign Governments, History, Sociology, Anthropology, Economics, Labor, International Relations, Asia, Africa, Latin America, Philosophy, and Education.

Summaries of Disciplines: recent developments in one of the subfields of anthropology, economics, history, political science, social psychology, or sociology are reviewed in each issue by a leading specialist.

Meetings addressed by statesmen, scholars, ambassadors, and authors, attended by 800 to 1,000 members and delegates, and conducted with a free flow of opinion from the floor.

The Place of The Academy

The Academy was organized in 1889 for the purpose of providing a forum for the oral and written discussion of political, social, and economic problems. Today, the magnitude of these problems, confronting both our own country and the rest of the world, merits the attention and cooperation of informed persons here and abroad. The Academy believes that intelligent and thoughtful people can satisfactorily meet these issues, but only through open and frank discussions. Problems to be solved must be understood, hence their many aspects must be considered and all arguments carefully weighed. The symposium method carried out by The Academy through its meetings and through its regular publication, THE ANNALS, provides this opportunity. The Academy does not take sides, but seeks to procure the most reliable information to assist the public in forming an intelligent opinion.

We welcome as members those persons who wish to utilize this method of keeping closely informed regarding conditions in this country and in the world.

THE AMERICAN ACADEMY of POLITICAL and SOCIAL SCIENCE
3937 Chestnut Street Philadelphia, Pennsylvania 19104

Board of Directors

NORMAN D. PALMER
HOWARD C. PETERSEN
WALTER M. PHILLIPS
PAUL R. ANDERSON
KARL R. BOFF
ELMER B. STAATS

MARVIN E. WOLFGANG
LEE BENSON
A. LEON HIGGINBOTHAM, JR.
RICHARD D. LAMBERT
REBECCA JEAN BROWNLEE
COVEY T. OLIVER

Officers

President

MARVIN E. WOLFGANG

Vice-Presidents

RICHARD D. LAMBERT, First Vice-President

JOSEPH S. CLARK

CLARK KERR

Secretary

NORMAN D. PALMER

Treasurer

HOWARD C. PETERSEN

Counsel

HENRY W. SAWYER, III

Editors, The Annals

RICHARD D. LAMBERT, Editor

ALAN W. HESTON, Assistant Editor

Business Manager

INGEBORG HESSLER