Dear Jim,

Thank you again for you time, help and hospitality. The correspondence about the Evening Star-FBI arrangement will fit right in with the theme of my book. (To remind you, it is to be called "Hand in Glove; How the Press in America became an Arm of Government," which pretty well sums up the basic idea.) If you come across any other instances of blatant news management such as that I would be delighted to hear about them. there is no shortage of such happenings, of course, but there is a paucity of neat documentation of it. Thank heaven for the clerical mind of J. Edgar Hoover.

Thanks again. I'll let you know to what specific purpose today's findings will be put.

Best regards,

Jim Anderson
