Andrews Asks Court Review

Attorney Dean Andrews has asked the Louisiana Supreme Court to review his conviction and 18-month sentence he received for perjury in connection with the Clay Shaw conspiracy trial.

Andrews, convicted Aug. 13, 1967, was charged with lying about identification of Shaw and "Clay Bertrand" and for answers to questions about an alleged call from "Bertrand" asking him to represent Lee Harvey Oswald in Dallas, Tex.

The testimony came in the trial of Shaw, who had been accused by Dist. Atty. Jim Garrison of conspiring to murder President John F. Kennedy.
