DA Seeking to Get Warren Lawyer for Andrews Trial

The District Attorney's office took steps today to have a Warren Commission attorney brought to New Orleans to testify next week at the perjury trial of attorney Dean A. Andrews Jr.

... to a joint commission attorney Wesley J. Liebeler when questioned under oath in 1964 that a man named Clay Bertrand had called him after the assassination of President Kennedy and asked him to defend accused assassin Lee Harvey Oswald.

District Attorney Jim Garrison, in his probe of the assassination, has charged retired New Orleans business man Clay L. Shaw is using the alias Clay Bertrand and participating in a conspiracy to murder the President.

ANDREWS, WHO WAS in ... Jim Garrison, Clay Shaw and Clay Bertrand are not the same man.

Liebeler was asked to come to New Orleans voluntarily ... and legally Apartment (Aug.) ... and he refused.

Today, assistant DA James L. Alcock filed a request for ...

... attendance by Liebeler with Criminal District Judge Frank ... Shea, who presides at the trial of Andrews. Judge Shea signed an order for Liebeler's return and an order for funds to cover Liebeler's travel expenses.

The papers will be forwarded to the court in Wyndham County ... Liebeler is now living in Lawrence ... which is in Wyndham County ...

IN REQUESTING Liebeler's return to New Orleans, Alcock said that he is a necessary ... material witness ... the state's case against Andrews.

... He said that testimony here by Liebeler was necessary to show the conflict between the ... the grand jury's questioning of Andrews and to ... ments.

ANDREWS ... questioned ... 1964 ... Commission ... conducting its investigation of the Kennedy assassination ...

... gave the commission ... conflicting descriptions of the man he said was Clay Bertrand.

... local grand ... Clay Shaw ... Bertrand. "I can't ... say he ain't ..." Andrews said that the man he knew as Clay Bertrand was French Quarter bar-owner Eugene Davis. Davis has denied using the name.