Dear Sol,

During the last days of the convention I tried to reach you. I did leave a message. You might not have gotten it or could have been too busy. I have several things I do not want in channels or bruited about.

From one of my conservative sources, a subject of past ADL interest, I have obtained a copy of what I believe ADL regards as one of its secret reports. I must protect my source from idle chatter.

Also, there is a possibility that there may be available in the near future an unusual inside source on a rather prominent and wealthy subject of your interest. If what I know about comes to pass, I think that what may be involved may well make a spectacular book and a movie perhaps reminiscent of the style of Citizen Kane. It could be very educational and unusually revealing - yet entirely factual because of the unique position of the person who would be the author/co-author.

Best to you all, and a speedy recovery!

(Or have conventions changed?)

Sincerely,
