'Anti-Dissident' Order Is Canceled by Army HEIDELBERG, Aug. 9—The lagents were to note the name,

U.S. Army today cancelled a rank, unit and race of particinew directive for surveillance pants in demonstrations, or of dissident GIs less than a other activities of an antiweek after the directive was American nature, including leaked to the press.

Army headquarters here congressmen. said: "The document was de- Today's army statement

The directive, leaked last week by a GI in the adjutant manders is with unlawful acts, general's office of the 8th Insuch as espionage and sabocomplaints to news media and termined to be inappropriate, as guidance on dissent contained in army regulations is directing an intensified miliconsidered sufficient and sol- tary counter-intelligence prodier dissent within the com-mand is presently at a very low level." gram against underground ac-tivities within the U.S. Army, Europe.

"The major concern of comfantry Division, detailed a pro-gram in which intelligence and damage to equipment."