Dear Jonathan,

It is thoughtful of you to offer me access to parts of the Posner interview transcript but without knowing what they talked about I cannot really say what interests me—other than anything at all the wretch says because he has trouble telling the truth even by accident.

I would like to read a copy on a confidential basis and use a highlighter to indicate what interests me when I return it.

I understand, not from my publisher, that my Case Opened is due in April. So of course I want to read everything he says before then.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg

Dear Mr. Weisberg,

An interview with Gerald Posner was conducted by a Barbara Newman for an upcoming television program. If you wish to speak with her about the transcript, she can be reached by phone at 202-362-6946. Or, you could send me a letter with certain areas of conversation you would be interested in, and I could send you a summary of that part of the transcript. These circuitous measures are necessary because the transcript is of an interview which will not air and is thus considered "outtakes".

Sincerely,

Jonathan R. Meyers,
