PERIODICALS

Jones, Penn

In the years 1966-68 numerous articles and editorial comments on the assassination and the Warren report were published in such publications as Ramparts, Life, Look, Saturday Evening Post, Esquire, Playboy and New Republic. For precise references see Reader's Guide to Periodical Literature and Alternative Press Index.

Since then, beginning in May, 1970, every monthly issue of Computers and People (formerly Computers and Automation) has contained an article on political assassinations and related topics. Now, a new publication devoted entirely to these subjects will appear. Entitled People and The Pursuit of Truth, it will contain an AIB newsletter, articles and photographs. To subscribe, write to Berkeley Enterprises, Inc., 815 Washington St., R5, Newtonville, Mass. 02160

Other periodicals who have recently devoted attention to the JFK assassination include The Realist, Rolling Stone, New Times, Penthouse, and The New York Review of Books.
