Dear Tom,

I've just heard that the Kwitny show is to include a debate between David Belin and Arlen Specter and John Davis and David Scheim on the single-bullet theory.

I tried to indicate to you when you were here that this is a complicated matter and that it will not be difficult to harm Kwitny's reputation.

Because my information comes from Specter's office I believe it is true.

So, now you have two self-proclaimed experts on the mafia also experts on forensic matters?

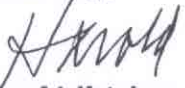

If they've read every word the Warren Commission published they still do not have all the available information and I doubt they took the time, with all their theorizing and other work, to really know the Warren material.

I don't really care if Kwitny wants to make a public spectacle of himself or of those two but I do care about more disinformation being palmed off on a trusting public. This is what you will be doing.

And I am confident that regardless of intent, you will be presenting as experts those who are not and cannot really be.

What Kwitny airs is his decision and none of my business. However, I am taking this time to caution you (all) and, although I don't tell one group what another group is doing, I do know something about what is being prepared and I assure you that the prospects are fine that on this also Kwitny will not only look bad but as an uncaring commercializer of a great national tragedy.

Sincerely,
