llos Angeles Times

(IVE, $89.95, R) is a rough-and-rowdy tale of city kids who find the wide-open spaces of the desert not so relaxing. Jon Cryer stars.

Fech

Other Videos and News

Movies-on-tape aren't the only videos that can make you laugh or cry.

that can make you laugh or cry. In the laugh category, Warner is releas-ing "The Best of Abhott and Costelle Live" ($19.98), an hourlong collection of the team's sketches from the early-'50s "Col-gate Comedy Hour." And if saving money brings smiles to the faces of Prince's fans, Warner has reduced the "Lovesexy" sing-er's two films, the highly praised "Purple Raim" and the much-derided "Under the Cherry Moon," to $19.98. Also down to that price: Mel Gibson in "Lethal Weap-on," Sly Stallone in "Over the Top," Clint Eastwood in "Firefox."

More price drops and vintage humor, MGM/UA has lowered the tag on five cartoon cassettes, including "The Secret of Nimh" at $19.95 and "Tex Avery's Screw-ball Classics" ($14.95). The latter is an animation-buff must—a cc lection of eight incredibly wacky cartoons, filled with Avery's trademark bug-eyed wolves and undistressed damsels. On the serious side, MGM/UA has just made "Four Days in November" available on video for $29.95. The two-hour David L. Wolper documentary on the assassination

16/88

Wolper documentary on the assassination of President John F. Kennedy will be of President John F. Kennedy will be followed on Sept. 29 by CBS/Fox's "John F. Kennedy: The Commemorative Video Album" ($19.98), a 110-minute retrospec-tive produced for home video by CBS News. Nov. 22 will mark the 25th anniver-sary of the President's death. Also new this week: "Dr. Heimlich's Home First-Aid Videe" (MCA, $19.95), a 36-minute illustration by Heimlich of his, anti-choking technique, plus information on how to handle other health emergencies.

cies. Get-out-of-the-house videos: EZTV is presenting an evening of "Goddess Vid-cos" at 8 tonight, including "Our Lady of L.A., "Lunatune" and "Remembering the Witches." Information: (213) 657-1532. Meanwhile, LACE will be offering contin-uous screenings of Erika Suderburg's new video "Displayed Termination," a 25-min-ute "contemplative collage." Informations (213) 624-5650. Coming scon to your video store. "Circ

Coming soon to your video store: "Cin-derella" (Oct. 4), "Supercallenetics" (Oct. 6), "Beetlejuice" (Oct. 19), "Three Men and a Baby" (Nov. 15).

Compiled by Terry Atkinson