

NOVEMBER 22, 1963.

THE DAY AMERICA LOST ITS INNOCENCE.

In an unprecedented television achievement, the A&E Cable Network will interrupt its regularly scheduled programming to bring you the actual news coverage of the day President John F. Kennedy was assassinated in Dallas, Texas.

For 6 uninterrupted, commercial-free hours, you will see the most important news story of the century unfolding exactly as it happened 25 years ago.

On Tuesday, November 22, 1:56PM ET, many of America's foremost journalists bring you the event that changed our lives forever. If you can't be home to watch, be sure to tape it. You will want to share it with your children.

At the end of the telecast, host Edwin Newman will discuss what it was like on the scene. And how America has grown from that shocking blow.

"JFK ASSASSINATION: AS IT HAPPENED."
