

Lasting Impressions

Where were you when JFK was killed? That's what Larry King asks a slew of celebs in his Nov. 21 TNT special, "November 22, 1963: Where Were You?" King himself was in a car listening to the radio. "I went straight to the radio station where I was working in Miami and telephoned the ambassador to Ireland, Grant Stockdale, an old friend of Kennedy's whom I knew. He was beyond grief. Several days later, he jumped out his office window." King also recalls his only meeting with Kennedy. "It was '58. I was driving through Palm Beach with three friends, enjoying the sights. I was doing about 5 mph when I ran into a convertible at a red light. It was just a tap, but the guy got out and said, 'How could you hit me? There are only two cars on the road!' I offered to exchange licenses, but he shook his head and said, 'I'm Senator Kennedy and I'm going to run for President in 1960. I want all four of you to vote for me.' We all agreed to do so."

King: Recalling JFK.

Contributors: Jeanne Wolf, Frank Swertlow, Ed Weiner, Mark Schroed, Gregg Stebben.

TV GUIDE NOVEMBER 6, 1993

ALBERT SANCHEZ/WSJAGES

ber TO REMEMBER

Prepare for a no-holds-barred sweeps month

Louis Gossett Jr. and C.C.H. Pounder are frontier folk in "Return to Lonesome Dove."

A WALTON THANKSGIVING REUNION (CBS, Nov. 21, 9 P.M.) A reason to be thankful: America's favorite family, home for the holiday.

BEYOND SUSPICION (NBC, Nov. 22, 9 P.M.) A threesome of TV's top talent plays for thrills: Corbin Bernsen is a serial killer/dentist who gets brought to justice by his wife (Markie Post) and a Fed (Kelsey Grammer).

FULL ECLIPSE (HBO, Nov. 27, 8 P.M.; repeat dates in December) The L.A.P.D. has secret crime-fighting weapons that really bite: werewolf cops. Stars Mario Van Peebles and Patsy Kensit.

THERE ARE NO CHILDREN HERE (ABC, Nov. 28, 9 P.M.) Oprah Winfrey produces and

MEMORIES OF JFK

WITH THE PRESIDENT—1961-1963 (The Disney Channel, Nov. 9, 9 P.M.)

An insider's portrait by former White House photographer Cecil Stoughton.

FATAL DECEPTION: MRS. LEE HARVEY OSWALD (NBC, Nov. 15, 9 P.M.)

How much did the infamous killer's wife know? Helena Bonham Carter plays Oswald's confused widow.

FRONTLINE: WHO WAS LEE HARVEY OSWALD? (PBS, Nov. 16; check local listings) An investigative bio of the world's most notorious assassin.

JACK (CBS, Nov. 17, 9 P.M.) Home movies, news clips, and warm-and-fuzzy words from JFK's friends, family, and colleagues.

CBS REPORTS: WHO KILLED JFK? THE FINAL CHAPTER (CBS, Nov. 19, 9 P.M.) CBS joins Newsweek and The Washington Post in untangling the mystery.

JFK: RECKLESS YOUTH (ABC, Nov. 21 and 23, 9 P.M.) Fans of Camelot will cringe: Nigel Hamilton's best-seller comes to TV.

THE END OF CAMELOT (The Discovery Channel, Nov. 21, 9 P.M.) A documentary detailing the events surrounding JFK's assassination.

NOVEMBER 22, 1963: WHERE WERE YOU? A LARRY KING SPECIAL, LIVE FROM WASHINGTON (TNT, Nov. 21, 8 P.M.) Politicians, celebrities, and call-in viewers share memories with Larry.

