

The Assassination of John F. Kennedy

A Comprehensive Historical and Legal
Bibliography, 1963-1979

Compiled by DeLloyd J. Guth and
David R. Wrone

Facts about the assassination of President John F. Kennedy on November 22, 1963 are still a mystery today, seventeen years after the event. The endless investigations and reports, each in conflict with the others, have reduced the issue to the common denominator of credibility, to faith or doubt in government, to distrust for police investigation rather than to matters of evidence.

This bibliography strives to open to the reader the abundance of historical evidence, some still classified but much that is available. The first section is a thorough introduction to that evidence and its locations. The second section includes books and articles published about the event—from the shamelessly sensational to scholarly contributions. A third section, arranged chronologically, references all reports appearing in The New York Times between 1963 and 1978 and those appearing in The Washington Post in 1978 when the Times suffered a lengthy printers' strike. Anyone concerned with the events of the assassination must find this an invaluable guide and reference.

CONTENTS—Part 1: The Evidence and the Litigants: Unpublished Sources • Published Sources excluding the Warren Report • Local Judicial Records • Federal Judicial Records • Photographic Evidence • Part 2: Published Books and Periodicals: Bibliographies and Research • The Action • The Reaction • Later Inquiries • Related Topics • Part 3: The New York Times Daily Reports, 1963-1978 • Supplemented by The Washington Post, 1978 • Index of Names • Index of Correspondents

Available in August 1980.

Guth, DeLloyd J. and Wrone, David R. (comps.) THE ASSASSINATION OF JOHN F. KENNEDY: A Comprehensive Historical and Legal Bibliography. (Westport, Conn., 1980). Approx. 500 pages, maps. GJK/ ISBN 0-313-21274-0. $35.00

THE AMERICAN PRESIDENCY

This Greenwood Press catalog includes books about the men who have held the office of President of the United States, their policies, the parties that elected them and the electoral process itself. Also included are theoretical works about the office of the president: who should be president; what are the limits of presidential power; how should the president be elected or removed from office; etc.

Featured in this catalog are five new or forthcoming titles:

Presidential Primaries by James W. Davis
Prelude to the Presidency by Gary M. Fink
Truman's Crises by Harold F. Gosnell
The Assassination of John F. Kennedy compiled by DeLloyd J. Guth and David R. Wroble
Presidential Secrecy and Deception by John M.
Orman

Greenwood Press
51 Riverside Avenue
Westport, Connecticut 06880

All titles listed are available at the time of issuance of this catalog unless otherwise noted.

All editions are sturdily bound, hardcover books which will provide long use with normal care. Except as noted, all are available for immediate delivery.

If you have a manuscript in American history or political science, please write to us. Do not submit a reading copy of the manuscript until we can respond to your letter.

Credit Card Orders

Call toll free 1-800-257-7850

(In New Jersey call 1-800-322-8650)

24 hours a day, 7 days a week, with your Master Charge, Visa or American Express card you can order the books you want right now! Greenwood Press pays postage and handling!

Please have your credit card ready along with the ISBN's (International Standard Book Number) of the titles you wish to order. Sorry . . . credit card orders only to this special toll free number. All other orders and inquiries should be directed to our Westport, Connecticut office.