

Oser'o eross-exomiction of sinck giduced perjurious statemonts, gs hsd Dymond's direct examinetion (as with seelng the X-reys and not seeine f-egments, mesuine perfury on bone bit and on fregmente, etc). Beceuse the DT hod obeanters prosent ot oll times, sometimes sccompsnyine witnesses, this mekas thut, unless the iJ 19 gyers kne\% mothing giout the csae thet rere sent to observe, they and the Department of Justice ary both arare that perjury #̈se cormitied.

At ore voint Pinck tastimiod, in the words of tie reporter, "Finck sald to die not obaerve sny metallic fragmenta in the throet mound."

Iinck said be had ba en told thre shots had be en firet. He says Roy Rellerman told bim that, which csnnot be ither true or possible, for as Iete as his Comission testimny Kallorman testiflad to a "flury", clearly belfeving there pere nore than threa until pressured by the commasion.

Finck said he could not sea the front neck 7ound. Helpern asys the trech sh ul? not heve obliterated it. But if he coula not see it on tho cedever, hor conlit the penel doctors see it on pletures no one o: which is fron the froct.

Pinck said the neok shot misaed the vica apperatus.
Te Finck Tere to be charges with perjury, the pletures and X-rays would hav: to be produced for his defense and for the rrosecution - end the paid d-ctors woule be aubject to subpens

Pinck ifed in asying the film coula not bon seon be cueuse it wes in the possegsion of the Sec-et servics and caull not bo developed in time. His axact 179 rts ghouli be consultad, but the photograbiling began a ilttio aftar 7:30 pem. En: the illn I.ft the hospitel about 3:30 日. .in. But if the SS took pogsession of the fin and prevented the developing, which is consletent itith Fince's testinony about the military, that constituted a gross intrusion into the madicc-lagal ietarmination it it the purposes oi gn autopsy to reach. Finck, in his testimony about tho purposez of an autopsy, accidently disclosed his lack of forenaic-madicel exparience by not including the solutions of tha crize or the obtaining of etidenca of a cuine.

