June 3, 1085

Nr. #1llism Emersen, Editor
The Esturusy Ivenine POBt
641 Lexington A. $\mathrm{F} 日$.,
Nec York, T.T. 1002\%
Lear -r. Zmerson,
Your reluctance to continue our correspondence over the David ise pieco is even mora compthonable to me now tian it wes when you ended it. I hope, howewor, that you will underatend ay reauption is not aerely to embarress you ord the Post, warracter es I would find such a personal indulegence.

Lire Dick malan, who lebored long and herd and then had to be solvoged, Hse is an excellent reporter tho just dion't kowsmbt he was writing about and didn't understand whet he had wen he sam it. Ho and you miased the important siory in those axecutive-seseion trenscripts. Unfortunataly, he idd not even uderstand the story he tried to write, for that one he did the the crossest inaccuracy, now ad itionelly traeic bscause it ia a slander on the newest assasst netion viotim. Now it hemens that. I had a btandin. request for avorytinine on the autopsy ani I pes deniad this date. his is a Jiolstion of
 E. Bahmes wha pure fleckary, ine ppropriate for ifs position. Instead of onataring I latter, Dr. Fohmer retirgd. This ig not by gny meens the iliat ease in mideh forn? I think it con be sssumed I kom the subjoct) have bea cieniel dute I agked subject to have ti eiven axclusivoly to a nate reporter whose ienorace of the of the for his bias) could be assumed. The contract foz tha pletures and tr-rays genda. Asopey is another. $1_{n}$ sll such eszes, what marge 3 is gotemment propspart of thi heve triou to give you to uncerztent, yod eni the foat have bacone assicning big Eut it is, if fron 20 other motitrtion, a logioel consamurnog of assicning ble mes to do stories they ill not and cen ot siffore to take the tine to do proply.

I notr haw important foreign taterost in the real story of the executivopublication. I em writing to ses if the Fost comll buterested in etory that Will not be en spoloey for the govemane, couche in contrary ienguege, in a genuine, domunented expose.

Aso, for the record, Issk the inte on thicic the irchives declassified these trunseripts for you.

Sincerely pours,

Harold loisborg

