PENTAGON DUBI d ON CUBA SUB BASE It Says a Project by Soviet Appears Less Likely Now 7 -Russia in New Denial 15 10/14/71 r. 3 By BENJAMIN WELLES le Special to The New York Times 1t WASHINGTON, Oct. 13-The 3-Defense Department said today 1that new evidence from Cuba d made it now appear less likely ıė that the Soviet Union was planning to build a submarine base there. 8 Daniel Z. Henkin, Assistant e Secretary for Public Affairs, said that a Soviet submarine tender that arrived in the Cuban port of Cienfuegos Sept. 25 left Saturday and was moving away from the island. However, he denied strongly that the Defense Department was backing away from intimations that the Soviet fleet was developing a permanent/facility for missile submarines there. In Moscow, official statements strongly reiterated the Soviet Union's denial that it was building such a base, termed United States suggestions "a concoction" and in-ending the Cuban missile crisis was being strictly adhered to. 3. Meanwhile, it was disclosed e 1- here that the extent of the construction being carried out 1by Cuban laborers for the t-Soviet Navy at Cienfuegos Ig amounted to two single-story 10 barracks-which a qualified 10 source described as resembling "chicken house"-plus a soccer in sisted that the 1962 agreement

s

4 Continued on Page 4, Column 3

exercise area.

There are no Soviet naval leisurely.

were mounting indications that in the Caribbean. the White House and the State and Defense Departments were formation.

ful."

Mr. Henkin, under persista base was planned would not be "direct contradiction" of Also on Sept. 25 Jerry W. said, he insisted.

Continued From Page 1, Col. 6 who have closely followed the situation here remained puzfield, a tennis court and an zled by the sequence of events nonetheless.

On Sept. 25 a White House personnel ashore, insofar as official, briefing newsmen two can be determined, qualified informants said, and the pace of construction appears to be trip to Europe, warned the Soviet Government against con-In Washington today there structing "a submarine base"

"We are watching the deembarrassed by the publicity, ployment of Soviet naval ac-which they helped stimulate tivity and of possible construclast month and which-for the tion there," said the official, moment-did not seem to be who declined to be identified. borne out by the available in- "The Soviet Union can be under no doubt that we would Robert J. McCloskey, the view the establishment of a State Department spokesman, strategic base in the Caribbean described the Tass statement with the utmost seriousness." as "positive." He declined to say whether the use of the term "positive" meant "truth-on Nov. 2, 1962—immediately after the Cuban missile crisis —stating that "if all offensive ent questioning, stressed that weapons are removed from the Defense Department, in re-Cuba and kept out of the porting Soviet naval activity hemisphere in the future under at Cienfuegos, had said from adequate verification and safethe start that it was not sure guards and Cuba is not used that a submarine base was for the export of aggressive being built. A denial that such Communist purposes, there will anything his department had Friedheim, a senior spokesman at the Pentagon, said that it Some officials and others had indications that the Russians wanted to establish "a permanent sumarine facility" White House official, but it in Cuba. He implied that the said that "neither U. S. Deinformation had come from fense Secretary Melvin Laird flights of American U-2 recon- nor anybody else could have naissance aircraft.

Soviet Denial Reiterated By JAMES F. CLARITY

Special to The New York Times MOSCOW, Oct. 13-The Soviet Union today issued its strongest denial to date that base at Cienfuegos.

hours before the United States crisis between them. Defense Department announced that a Soviet submarine tender had left the Cuban port. Soviet news media did not mention the ship's departure or its presence in Cuban waters. Tass, the official press agency, said in an authoritative statement that American suggestions that such a base was being constructed were "a con-ing its own military base on coction." A separate Tass com-Cuba and is not doing anything mentary, signed by Nikolai that would contradict the un-Chigir, said such assertions were a "hostile anti-Soviet" ernments of the U.S. S. R. and campaign" that was "not only the United States." inspired but also encouraged by official representatives of the Pentagon and the White House."

The commentary did name a any information on this base because there is no such base in existence and no construction work of this kind had been carried on or is under way."

Both the statement and the commentary said the Soviet Union was adhering to the it was building a submarine United States in 1962 under which Russian missiles were The denial came several removed from Cuba, easing a

Referring to the 1962 agreement, between President John F. Kennedy and Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev, Tass said, "Any assertions on 'a possible violation' by the Soviet Union of the above-mentioned understanding through the construction of a naval base on Cuba are a concoction, since the Soviet Union has not built and is not build-Cuba and is not doing anything ernments of the U. S. S. R. and

1000