

NEWTON ON BAIL

Black Panther co-founder Huey P. Newton has been freed on bail after he triggered a courtroom disruption when the prosecution produced a surprise witness during his retrial in Oakland, Calif., in the shooting death of a policeman.

Newton had been free on $50,000 bail, which Judge Hove later restored after Newton promised to behave "if I can get a fair trial."

"You are going to get a fair trial," Hove told him.

Sharp Reaction

The White House reacted sharply to Washington, D.C.

Pres 7-16-77