16 Black Panthers Indicted in Chicago On Kidnaping and Torture Charges

CHICAGO, June 10 (AP)—Sixteen members of the Black Panther Party were indicted today on charges of kidnaping and torturing a man and woman.

Six of the Panthers, including Fred A. Hampton, deputy chairman of the Illinois party, were in custody. Warrants were issued for the arrest of 10 others.

The 16 are charged with kidnaping a Negro couple in Summit, a southwestern suburb of Chicago. The victims testified before the May grand jury which was held over to hear the case. The victims' identities were not revealed.

and left in Summit. The woman was burned with a propane torch and taken to a South Side apartment where she escaped by leaping from a third floor balcony.

Charges included in the indictments are conspiracy to commit kidnaping, kidnaping, aggravated kidnaping, burglary, aggravated battery and unlawful use of a weapon.
