A BLACK MILITANT SLAIN IN HOUSTON

Police and Negroes Trade Gunfire, Wounding Four-Site of Shooting Tense 128/70 By MARTIN WALDRON

Special to The New York Times HOUSTON, July 27-Carl Hampton, the 21-year-old leader of a black militant organization in Houston, was fatally shot by the police early this morning in an exchange of gunfire that left four other persons wounded.

Mr. Hampton, chairman of the Peoples Party 2, a group similar to the Black Panther party, died in a hospital after having been hit by a policeman's bullet that was fired from atop a church.

Late today, about 200 young Negroes milled in crowds along Dowling Street in the southeast section, near the site of the gunfight, which began last night following a rally by the militant blacks. The rally had been called to protest the arrests of two Negro youths.

"I am sorry that an incident such as this has occurred but I am pleased by the restraint which the police have shown over the past two weeks as the situation built up. From intelligence reports I received before leaving and from those relayed to me while traveling, it was obviously a matter of time before these revolutionaries would go too far and leave the police no alternative but to move in."

Although Peoples Party was known in the Negro community as a "Black Panther" organization, the Police Department said it did not consider it to be one. "That was the reputation they were trying to build up," a police spokesman said.

List of Demands

The organization's demands include black juries and judges for Negroes charged with crimes; reparations from whites for past mistreatment; freedom for all jailed Negroes; exemp-tion of Negroes from military service and decent housing and jobs for blacks.
