Panther Hearing Off Until Tomorrow

By EDITH EVANS ASHBURY Pretrial hearings for 13 Black fourth-floor office. By EDITH EVANS ASHBURY Pretrial hearings for 13 Black Panthers accused of plotting to bomb public places were ad-journed yesterday to tomorrow which threed efense lawyers baye offices. Mr. Lefcourt, his sister-in-law, Mrs. Carol Lefcourt, and William E. Crain, who represent an office on the fourth floor of the first floor of the five-story have been completed and 11 more are pending. Three mo-tions opposing the use of statements made by defendants and one seeking suppression of have offices. Supreme Court Jusstice John W. Murtagh and Assistant Dis-trict Attorney Joseph A. Phil-lips expressed "sumpathy" to the lawyers for their fire dam-the first floor of the five-story which time 30 firemen, includ-ling two battalion chiefs, were Mr. Lafocuret and and assistant Dis-hours Sunday morning, during ing two battalion chiefs, were Mr. Lafocuret and assistant Dis-the lawyers for their fire dam-Mr. Lefcourt and other de-

50

C

However, Justice Murtagh said he was "amazed" at the posal yesterday by Mr. Phillips request for a week'sa djourn- that the order of the hearings ment from one of the lawyers, be changed so that hearings for a second hearings of the hearings that hearings the second hearings of the lawyers hearing to the lawyers hearing to the lawyers hearing to the lawyers hearing to the hearin Gerald Lefcourt, because Mr. could resume tomorrow with Lefcourt's "clients are in the clients of three lawyers whose main incarcerated."

Mr.Lef court said that all the building. lawyers and defendants wanted These lawyers are Sanford the hearings to proceed "as Katz, Charles McKinney and soon as possible," However, he Robert J. Bloom. Tomorrow's said, he needs time to assess hearing will be on a motion by the water, and smoke damage Mr. Katz's client Lee Roper for.

1/14/70

but proceeded quietly three days last week.

. . . ____